

Sitting on Laber Field, Camille Shifrin '22 laughs and smiles at her friends. It was an early morning for seniors on the September 17th as they awoke at 5:30am and prepared for the Regis Jesuit tradition of Senior Sunrise. Although the morning was cloudy and brisk, the seniors continued to have plenty of fun and filled their stomachs with yummy pancakes and sausages.

During the season opener for varsity football, students put their hands in the air and wiggle their fingers as they preform the roller coaster chant during the home game at Lou Kellogg Stadium. The Raiders played for a sold out crowd on August 27 against Valor. Our team was defeated 6-24 during the first game of the year. Photo by Chloe Simon '23
