

Cody Potts from Barrhead chases a calf during the tie-down roping event at the Rainmaker Rodeo.

Garrett Zieffle from Consort was quick during the tie-down roping event at the Rainmaker Rodeo, held May 23-25 in St. Albert.

AT THE RODEO

Photos by JOHN LUCAS/St. Albert Gazette

LEFT: Othias Jones (in the red pants) and Son of Irish had a spirited bout, both in and out of the ring during a Real Canadian Wrestling match. RIGHT: Tyler Pedersen from Gundy takes the problem by the horns during the steer wrestling event.

TOP, LEFT: Kids test their courage on the Spring Ride at the midway. TOP, RIGHT: Riders brace for a big drop on the Super Shot. LEFT: Brett Kampjes from Sturgeon County was all concentration during the tie-down roping event. ABOVE: The Flying Pig Races were a popular attraction on the midway.

▲ Koby Ziemmer (L) and David Schmidt enjoy a snack before the action starts.

◀ Wyatt Shumka, 5, had a ride on Pepe the pony with his mom Christine and pony wrangler Tonie Zutz alongside.

► Sisters Kitt Leskow, 8, and Brin Fraser, 4, from Marwayne, carried the Canadian flag during the singing of the national anthem.

